FSS Summer Camp 2026

Notes

Students are responsible for their own preparation (the Faculty of Social Sciences will not be responsible for the following expenses):

1. Transportation arrangements and related expenses for travel to and from Macao;
2. All expenses and arrangements for the student's early arrival and/or late return to and stay in Macao due to transportation issues (including flights), etc.;
3. Accommodation at the University of Macau in a twin-bedded room (fee: MOP330 per person per night). The Faculty will subsidize 3-night accommodation while the students have to bear 2-night accommodation on their own. (Students are required to stay in the accommodation arranged by the Faculty for the entire period of the programme);
4. All expenses and arrangements of the transportation and meals in Macao, including breakfast, lunch and dinner (except for activities and meals organized by the Faculty);
5. Insurance in Macao (Students are advised to purchase insurance according to their own needs);
6. All expenses incurred during the free time;
7. All costs of all valid travel documents, visas and other relevant expenses for entering and leaving Macao. Students should apply for the documents and visas required for entry into Macao on their own, and the validity of the documents approved for entry and stay in Macao should cover the period of the programme (26 July 2026 to 31 July 2026). Upon arrival in Macao, if the period of stay on the students' visas do not cover the dates of the programme, the students will be responsible for the consequences and costs incurred;
8. All costs for medical treatment, hospitalization, or examinations required during the stay in Macao shall be borne by the students;
9. If a student's visa application for staying in Macao has been approved and the student has canceled his/her participation of the programme, the approved visa in Macao shall not be used for any other purposes;

10. Students are responsible to confirm their identity documents (e.g. the Resident Identity Card, the “Exit-Entry Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao” and the Other documents for travelling to and from Macao, etc.) comply with the legal requirements of Macao for non-local students’ stay in Macao, as detailed on the website of the “Border Control Department of the Macao Public Security Police Force”;
11. Students are responsible for clearly understanding and complying with all legal regulations in Macao. Any responsibilities and consequences arising from non-compliance shall be borne by the students. Additionally, students must assume their own safety risks and take responsibility for the safekeeping of their personal belongings. The University of Macau will not be liable for any accidents, injuries, or damage or loss of property incurred by the students.

Changes and Cancellation Rights

1. The Faculty of Social Sciences reserves the right to make changes to the programme at any time;
2. The Faculty of Social Sciences reserves the right to postpone or cancel the programme if the number of applicants is insufficient;
3. The schedule, courses, activities, and visits may be adjusted according to the actual situation.

The Faculty of Social Sciences reserves the right to cancel an application if the applicant:

1. Fills in false information; or
2. Submits forged academic qualifications or other supporting documents; or
3. Any misbehavior during the application process.

This document has been produced in Chinese and English versions. The Chinese version shall prevail in case of any discrepancies.
